What is Visosport?

Fun Activities

Within seconds your team will be laughing and joking through our interactive games. We ensure everyone is involved and enjoys playing the games with others.

Mental Wellbeing

All games offer every person success and celebrate individuality. Verbal interaction and support is developed through immersion rather than instruction.

Physical Wellbeing

Our games encourage everyone to be active through play. They engage employees, incentivising them to move. Your staff will be empowered to personalise the intensity.

Visosport is 144 active, problem-solving games that challenge staff through immersion, experimentation and communication. We play a selection of these games to motivate staff, improve cognitive development and help support each other.

Each game lasts about 10-minutes, so each person is challenged to problem-solve quickly. The games are designed to guide staff to try new options until they find an effective, personalised solution.

Every team-member is extended by offering a wide-range of activities that each suit a different skillset. This empowers staff to lead by example through the session.

Game Example

Developing Problem Solving

Noughts and Crosses

1 v 1 game. Each person simultaneously takes one of their coloured balls at a time and places it on a central cone.

The first person to get 3 balls in a row wins. More confident staff can start further back to level up the game.

Staff are challenged to multi-task by both considering their own tactics and blocking their opponent. Whilst it's challenging, anyone can win. Staff will adapt dynamically.

Game Example

Enhancing Team Cohesion

Protection

In a group of 8 people, 4 of 6 attackers have a ball. The two defenders aim to tag any player without a ball.

The 6 attackers must work together to ensure no person is left isolated. However, by helping each other, they risk isolating themselves!

What tactics can they devise to keep each other safe?
There is no right or wrong answer but lots of solutions that team members work towards to solve.
